

Product Safety Recall

A voluntary recall is being conducted for style 825101 - Girl's Gingham Nightie that was purchased from Peter Alexander retails stores between 8th September to 19th October 2009.

The fabric used in this product is a heavier weight than what is allowed under the Australian and New Zealand Standards for "Children's nightwear and limited daywear having reduced fire hazard". There is a high fire danger risk which could involve burns. This is a precautionary recall and no injuries have been reported.

If you have purchased this product, please ensure that children do not wear the garment.

Please return this to your closest peteralexander store for a full refund.

If this is not convenient, please contact our customer service team on 1300 137 715.

Office hours are Monday - Friday between 9am - 5pm.
