

Product Safety Recall

Milestone AV Technologies is conducting a product recall.

Sanus Simplicity Television Wall Mount model number SLF5/ Costo item #771290

Sold at Costco between 5 December 2013 and 4 September 2014

Defect: There is a risk that a mounted television may become detached from the arm assembly of the wall mount. The nut securing the television to the main arm assembly of the wall mount can loosen causing the attached television to become detached from the arm assembly.

Hazard: If a television detaches from the wall mount, it may cause injury.

What to do: Milestone and Costco will notify affected customers and will provide a free safety kit. Customers wishing to return the complete product to Costco will be offered a full refund.

Milestone and Costco apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Contact details: If further information is required, customers are invited to call Milestone customer service on 07 3276 1355 or sanus.australia@milestone.com or go to www.milestone.com
