

Product Safety Recall

MorfBoard Skate & Scoot Combo Set

The product was sold nationally by various retailers between
26 April 2018 and 27 September 2018

Identifying Features: The affected product comes in multiple colours. The affected products were supplied with a "Y" shaped handle bar. The date codes of the affected products are 0998VE01, 1278VE01, 1598VE01, 1818VE01, 2328VE01, 2428VE01 and 2548VE01. The date codes are located on the underside of the skateboard.

Defect: The "Y" handle bar welding may break under excessive force, while in use.

Hazard: If the "Y" handle bar welding breaks, the rider could fall, increasing the risk of serious injury to the rider and other road, path or trail users nearby.

What to do: If your product has a "Y" shaped handlebar and any of the date codes listed above, stop using the product immediately and contact Jakks to organise for a free replacement handle. Consumers can contact Jakks by visiting <https://jakks.com/safety-notice/morfboard/> or by calling the 24 hour toll free number 1800 292 034.
