

Product Safety Recall

Flotation Suit

SFSF002 Generic Submarine (Blue)
SFSF001 Generic Princess (Pink)
Sold at Target July 2010 / October 2010

A neck to knee "rashy" swimming costume with sewn in flotation aid supporting chest, back and neck.

Defect The sew in warning label carries an incorrect warning for the Australian Market. The label states the suit will not protect against drowning. The correct Australian Standards Warning should state 'Not for use in boating'

Hazard This is a label compliance issue and there are no other faults with the product. This recall affects approximately 95 flotation suits sold around Australia.

What to do For a full refund of the product please contact Hunter Products on 1800 224 094 or via enquiries@hunteroverseas.com.au
