Electrical Safety Recall

Show Television Pty Ltd

Euroblade Suntower infrared heater

Freestanding portable infrared 2000W radiant heater.

Model: Sundear Sunmore-H 2000.

Power setting: 220-240V 50-60Hz 2000W.

Dates sold: 11 March 2024 – 17 July 2024

Why the product is recalled: The product does not comply with the relevant electrical safety standard. The heat produced by the heater in close proximity (500mm or less) to objects exceeds the maximum levels of the standard.

Hazard: There is a risk of serious burn injury or death and/or property damage if objects close to the heater catch fire.

1. Consumers should stop using the product immediately. Consumers should switch off and unplug the heater from power.
2. Consumers should contact Show TV Australia to request a replacement heater from the Euroblade range or a refund.

To arrange your replacement or refund, or for more information, email us at suntower@showtv.com.au
