

PRODUCT SAFETY RECALL

Chloe Layla and Co — BIBS Dummies

Defect: Does not comply with the Australian mandatory standard Consumer Goods (Babies Dummies and Dummy Chains) Safety Standard 2017 as warning label, instructions for use including dummy hygienic care, and manufacturer or distribution contact information were not included on product packaging.

Hazard: Warning notice or hygienic care instructions were not provided to consumers and dummies should be inspected for damage or weakness before use. A cord or ribbon attached to a dummy may pose a strangulation hazard.

What to do: Customers should contact admin@chloelayla.com.au if they purchased BIBS dummies from Chloe Layla and Co to ask for warning label and direction information about using BIBS dummies to be sent out to them.
